BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits for approval a set of bye-laws, framed by the District Rural Council of Kaira, relating to the management of panchayat wells and plant etc. the required translation have been received in the Mahal.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The above bye-laws have been framed by the District Rural Council of Kaira under Sec 41 (2) of the Rural Rights, which applies to the District Rural Council.

These bye-laws seem to have been carefully framed from the model bye-laws of the Ahmedabad Rural Council.

Subject No.

Bye-law No. 1 seems to be unnecessary as provision has been made in Bye-law No. 2 for inspection of the premises by the Health Authorities and as he must be in attendance in the Slaughter-house at the time of the Chief Secretary's Executive Council, which is probably a matter to be arranged by the Staff Bye-laws

Do. No. 2(b). The words "the Local Medical Officer" may be inserted after the word "Vice-President" appearing in the last line.

Do No. 3 The words "or the Local Medical Officer" may be inserted between the words "Vice-President" and "may direct."

Do No. 4. The words "in such manner as the President or the Health Officer may direct" may be inserted after the word "Rules."

The following must show, which is more convenient, which
